However, that particular day all I had were my fists, a 4X4 and one of my partners from my â€”hood. From that day on, Baby Love and I had an understanding; I was a man to be respected. And while I didnâ€™t have any further incidents with the goon, other problems lingered in my life. I became more aggressive, and my heart turned colder. I once told my kids â€”to get out of the hood, you have to ... push themselves and discover new ways of handling problems. These are solutions that could one say save their life. I once told my kids â€”to get out of the hood, you have to think.
